Bone Collector LLC

Dear Ms. Flynn:

On August 20, 2019, the Federal Election Commission reviewed the allegations in your complaint dated September 27, 2017, and found that on the basis of the information provided in your complaint, and information provided by the Respondents, that there is no reason to believe that Respondents violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(c)(1) and dismissed allegations that Respondents violated 52 U.S.C. § 30120. In addition, the Commission was equally divided on whether to find reason to believe that Respondents violated 52 U.S.C. §§ 30116(a) and 30118(a), and equally divided on whether to dismiss the allegation that Respondents violated these provisions of the Act. Accordingly, on August 20, 2019, the Commission closed its file in this matter.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days. See Disclosure of Certain Documents in Enforcement and Other Matters, 81 Fed. Reg. 50,702 (Aug. 2, 2016). One or more Statements of Reasons explaining the Commission's decisions may follow.

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(8).

Sincerely,

Lisa J. Stevenson
